

Usage Guidelines for FV Film

Please read the following important notes carefully before using this product.

About Anti-viral & Anti-bacterial

1. Inorganic anti-bacterial agent, kneading, surface layer: JP0122499X0001J
2. Inorganic anti-viral agent, kneading, surface layer:JP0612499X0001N
3. SIAA mark is displayed on products that are subject to quality control and information disclosure in accordance with the guidelines of the Society of International sustaining growth for Antimicrobial Articles, based on the results of evaluation in accordance with the ISO 22196 or ISO 21702 method.
4. This product is not a pharmaceutical product.
5. This product does not reduce all viruses.
6. It uses antiviral materials that meet the safety standards of SIAA.
7. It meets SIAA safety standards.
8. Anti-viral processing is not intended to treat or prevent disease.

Guidelines for Attaching

1. Do not touch the adhesive surface. It may cause adhesive strength to weaken and also appearance defects.
2. When removing the protective film, do not bend it forcibly.
3. Please note that if the area where the anti-viral & anti-bacterial film is attached is covered with bezel, it will be difficult to re-attach the film.
4. When attaching the anti-viral & anti-bacterial film, make sure to avoid foreign substance from getting into. Bubbles will occur around the foreign substances.
5. This product cannot be used with our light-touch resistive touch panels.

